

John Doe Example

John Doe (Pops) passed away peacefully surrounded by his family in Grand Rapids MI on June 10, 2015. He was 91 years old. He was the devoted husband of the late Betty Doe (Smith), to whom he was married 62 years.

“Pops” was born in May 1924 to parents Robert and Mabel Doe in the small farming community of Long Prairie, Minnesota. He was the youngest of six children and is predeceased by Paul, Robert, Mabel, George and Stanley. He is survived by: his daughter, Dorothy, his son Robert, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

John graduated from Long Prairie High School in 1941 and entered the University of Michigan. His education was interrupted during WWII, when he entered the US Navy. He rose to the rank of Petty Officer 1st Class and served his country during WWII in the Pacific Conflict.

John returned to the University of Michigan after the war and graduated with Honors in Mechanical Engineering.

After graduation “Pops” had a fascinating career, working 42 years for Case Engineering, achieving partner status as a result of his hard work and commitment. His work took him all over the United States as well as 7 countries exposing him to many different cultures and ethnicities. Later he advanced to a partner in the firm.

“Pops” will always be remembered for his quick wit, love of God and his family.

A memorial service will take place at St Francis on 123 Main Street, Grand Rapids MI on Saturday, June 22, 2015 at 10a.m.

Jane Mary “Mini” Doe died on June 8, 2015 at the age of 77 in Dallas, Texas. Mini is survived by: her husband of 49 years, Thomas Doe; her children Mary Smith and Susan Jones; 7 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

She was born and raised in Dallas Texas and a graduate from Dallas High School in 1955.

Mini was a devoted mother, homemaker and spent many years as a volunteer at her daughters schools. She loved to bowl, play bingo, bake and was a member of the American legion for 37 years.

To our surprise “Mini” requested to sky dive (tandem) on her 70th birthday. She later said it was one of the most exciting times of her life!

A memorial service will be held at the Good Faith Lutheran Church at 1 South Road, Dallas, Texas at 11:00 a.m. on June 15, 2015.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made at Giveforward.com by typing in Jane Mary Doe Fundraiser.
